

KLove is the only FM station that my family will listen to throughout our day. We are confident we can have it on when our young children are in the car due to the Christian values and topics that are promoted on this channel. If we were to lose this station we would turn off the radio completely. It is in the public's interest to continue this channel so we can have a wholesome station available for our family.